

Team Challenge Handbook

Team up. Split up. Score the most points. Win the Grand Prize.

How it works?

1. Form a team of up to 3 and register it on the day with a team name.
2. Split up. Teammates can attend different events at the same time.
3. Coordinators give your team points. Watch the live leaderboard.
4. Scoring closes at 8:00 PM.

Results are announced just before the movie screenings. Highest total wins

Good to know

- Attendance is mandatory. A coordinator must confirm someone from your team was there.
- Workshops count once per team. Three of you in one workshop is still +300.
- Competition entries are individual, but prizes go to the team. Two teammates can enter the same one and both can score.
- One individual can only be part of one team.
- Forming a team is recommended to win maximum quack points but not compulsory. You can participate individually in events
- Team registration will begin early in the morning at 9:30 AM and will go on until 12 PM.
- The Treasure Hunt is played by your team, but not everyone has to play. Two can hunt while the third attends another event.
- There are both solo and team games at Victory Point.
- Tie? The team that attended more workshops wins.
- If any discrepancy is found, team will be disqualified

Tips

- Split up every slot. Three people at three events beats three at one.
- Workshops are safe points. Competitions pay more, but only the top 3 score.
- Register early (seats are limited) and leave walking time between venues.
- Do not spend all your quack points on board games.

A smart day:

Team Duck Dynasty (A, B, C)

Slot	A	B	C	Quack Points
Morning	Treasure Hunt	Treasure Hunt	Kala.js workshop	Hunt 2nd: +1200 Workshop: +300
Afternoon	Victory Point	Pixels & Programs contest	Rangkarmi workshop	+600 +600 (2nd) +300
Late Afternoon	See. Frame. Shoot.	Extempore (no podium)	Victory Point	+300 +0 +800
Evening	Scicomm workshop	Heart Out Loud contest	Artist-in-dialogue panel	+300 +1200 (1st) +300

The idea: two teammates take the team event, the third grabs a workshop, and everyone splits up after that. Podium finishes are not guaranteed, but workshops are steady points.
